The Story of Prophet Nuh (Alayhi Salam)

Who was Prophet Nuh (alayhi salam)?

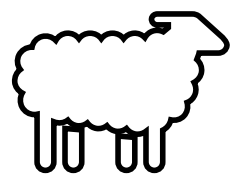

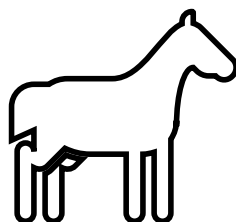

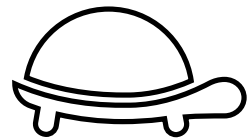

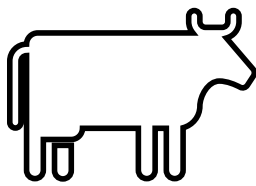

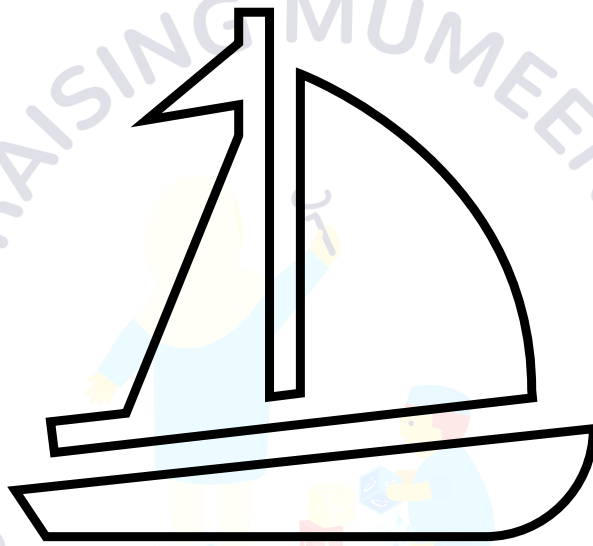

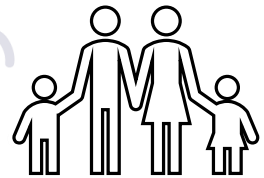

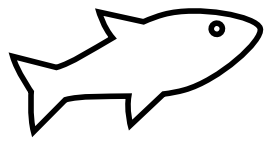

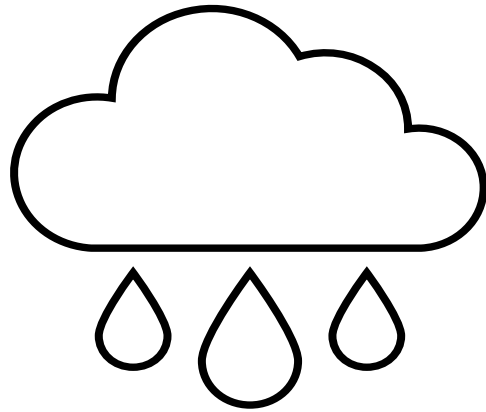

- He was a Prophet of Allah (ta'ala)
- He lived for 950 years, calling people to worship Allah alone
- His people did not listen to him and continued worshipping idols
- He prayed to Allah (ta'ala) to punish the disbelievers, and Allah (ta'ala) sent a mighty flood
- He built a very big ark that saved the people and animals who believed in Allah (ta'ala) from drowning when the flood came

Lesson: The story of Prophet Nuh (alayhi salam) teaches us to worship Allah (ta'ala) alone, and that we should listen to and follow His prophets so that we can be good Muslims.

His Dua to Allah (ta'ala):

قَالَ رَبِّ انصُرْنِي بِمَا كَذَّبُوا

"My Lord, support me because they have denied me." (Qur'an 23:26)
